

Wolfgang Pitsch, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

A point free approach to supports

In this talk we present a point-free approach to the theory of supports for tensor triangulated categories in the spirit of A.

Joyal's theory of universal supports for commutative rings. In particular we will show how this approach helps to clarify the relation between tensor nilpotence and the separability of the spectrum of a tensor triangulated category.