

Viviane Baladi | Sorbonne Université

Title: Statistical properties of dispersive billiards

We will survey results obtained in the past decade on statistical properties of two-dimensional dispersive billiards (Sinai billiards), both in the discrete and continuous time setting, for various equilibrium states, including the physical measure and the MME.

Since we will not consider the setting of open billiards, the singularities of the map or flow need to be addressed, and this is a major technical difficulty.