

Title:

A computational phase transition for pressure approximation

Abstract:

In this talk we will review some techniques and limitations to have efficient approximation algorithms for the pressure and entropy on some families of potentials and subshifts of finite type. As a by-product of these results, we will obtain conditions to have uniqueness of the equilibrium state and locality of pressure, among other implications that are not strictly algorithmic.